Cleaning The Microwave

*“The Lord does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but God looks at the heart.”
1 Samuel 16:7*

There are probably certain parts of your home that you always clean before guests arrive. You may run the vacuum cleaner over the carpets or finally put away the piles of laundry. The main areas of the home get a once over; the bedroom doors get pulled shut, and perhaps the furniture gets dusted.

The one room that probably gets the most attention, however, is the bathroom because, let’s face it, it’s a room guests are likely to check out. If they’re curious, they may even look behind the shower curtain or in the medicine cabinet. But while guests may be checking your bathroom sink for dried toothpaste, your mother is going straight for your secret area of messiness; the microwave.

When Samuel went to Jesse’s house looking for the next king, he thought he knew what he was looking for. He had an image in his mind of what a king would look like. So when the first son stood before him in all of his strength and stature, Samuel assumed he must be the one. But the Lord hadn’t chosen that son or any of the other seemingly obvious choices.

God wasn’t impressed by or put off by any of the sons’ outward appearances. The Lord was only concerned with the heart of each man, and He knew that the heart that would follow after Him was inside David, the shepherd boy.

Our heavenly Father sees what other people don’t. There’s no way to hide your mess from Him. No matter how shiny your bathroom may be, He’s going to look in the microwave. –Copied

Rules For The Game of Life (A father’s advice to his son)

“I am giving you the ball, son, and naming you quarterback for your team in the game of life. I am your coach, so I’ll give it to you straight.

There is only one schedule to play. It lasts all your life but consists of only one game. It is a long game with no time out and no substitutions. You play the whole game—all your life.

You’ll have a great backfield. You’re calling the signals but the other three fellows in the backfield with you have great reputations. They are named Faith, Hope, and Charity.

You’ll work behind a truly powerful line. End to end, it consists of Honesty, Loyalty, Devotion to Duty, Self-Respect, Study, Cleanliness, and Good Behavior.

The goal posts are the pearly gates of heaven. God is the referee and sole official. He makes all the rules and there is no appeal from them.

There is also an important ground rule. It is ‘As you would that men should do to you, do you also to them likewise.’

Here is the ball. It is your immortal soul. Hold onto it. Now, son, get in there and let’s see what you can do with it.” --Copied

Reminder

If you like to sing, there is a group meeting together here at the building after the Sunday night worship service to practice old songs and learn new ones.

Today Is Here

Today is here. I will start with a smile and resolve to be agreeable. I will not criticize; I will not waste my precious time in that way!

Today gives me equality with all others in this lifetime. All of us draw the same salary in seconds, minutes, and hours.

Today I refuse to spend time worrying about things that might happen. I must spend my time this day making things happen for good!

Today I will determine to study to improve myself for all my tomorrows. I may be wanted and I must not be found lacking!

Today I will not imagine what I would do if things were different; they are not different. I must make success with what material I have.

Today I will stop saying, “if I could just find the time,” for I will never “find time” for anything. If I need time for a good deed, I must take it! --Copied
