COME
 TO ME, ALL
 YOU WHO ARE WEARY AND BURDENED,
 AND I WILL GIVE YOU
 REST.

MATTHEW 11:28

God's Providence

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to His purpose. Romans 8:28

Out of our human weaknesses, there may come moments when we are tempted to doubt that all things are working for our good. This is due to our shortsightedness. We are tempted to think in the limited terms of the present and to appraise in the narrow scope of what we presently feel and see. Though our trials and afflictions are numerous and long-endured, we know from God's revelations and from our own experiences that they work for our good—that is, if we love God. For this is a conditional promise—"to them that love God." And Jesus said, "If a man love me, he will keep my words" (John 14:23). If we comply with the condition, God will keep the promise.

*My life is but a weaving between my Lord and me;
I may not choose the colors, He knows what they should be;*

*For He can view the pattern upon the upper side,
While I can see it only on this, the under side.*

*Sometimes He weaveth sorrow, which seemeth strange to me;
But I will trust His judgment and work on faithfully;*

*'Tis He who fills the shuttle, He knows just what is best;
So I shall weave in earnest and leave with Him the rest.*

*Not till the loom is silent and the shuttles cease to fly;
Shall God unroll the canvas and explain the reason why—*

*The dark threads are as needful in the Weaver's skillful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver in the pattern He has planned.*

*He knows, He loves, He cares. Nothing this truth can dim.
He gives His very best to those who leave the choice to Him.

We may obtain rest from our burdens by simply casting them on the Lord. David said, "Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee" (Psalms 55:22). And Peter said, "Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you" (1 Peter 5:7). The weight of life's cares and sufferings are too burdensome for us to try to carry them alone. We should cast them on the Lord and take a rest.

You Need to Know

Birthdays this week:

Sunday, Mar. 28 – Noah Morgan

Monday, Mar. 29 – Lesli Preaus Thomas & Ray Broeder

Wednesday, Mar. 31 – Letsy Everett

Friday, April 2 – Anzlee Eldridge, Nathan Bird & Nicole Futch Albritton

Let's all keep in our prayers those who have lost loved ones, those who are sick, shut-in and those who are facing surgery or other treatments.

Jesus' Possessions

In the lifetime of Jesus, we do not hear Him speak of "my house," my land," my farm," my "books," "my business," or "my money." We do, however, hear Him speak of "My Father" (Matthew 10:33), "my friends" (John 15:14), "my disciples" (John 15:8), "my Church" (Matthew 6:18), "my name" (Matthew 18:20), "my words" (Mark 8:38), "my sheep" (John 10:27), and my joy" (John 17:13). It is significant that Jesus thought more of spiritual possessions than of material ones. --Copied

"The light of God surrounds me, the love of God enfolds me, the power of God protects me, the presence of God watches over me. Wherever I am, God is." --Copied

*Our business in prayer is not to prescribe but to subscribe to the wisdom and will of God; to refer our case to Him, and then leave it with Him.

Other Things To Do

When it is time to worship God
And to occupy my pew,

Will I assemble with the saints
Or find other things to do?

When God needs my service to Him
And wants me to help a few,

Will I do what needs to be done
Or find other things to do?

When I sit down to rest awhile
With quiet reading in view,

Will I read the Word of God
Or find other things to do?

When I stand before the throne
And God renders what is due,

Will He grant me mercy or
Will He find other things to do?
